

THE KEN R. NOLLER UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT AWARD IN HISTORY

2016

The UCR History Department is pleased to announce the 2016 Ken R. Noller Undergraduate Student Award in History. An award of $500 will be made to support a freshman or community college transfer student with financial need majoring in History.

Eligibility: The award is open to freshman and community college transfer students majoring in History.

Application: Essays between one and three pages will be considered. Essays must be submitted via email (history@ucr.edu) in advance of the deadline.

Award Selection: Nominations will be reviewed and selected by the History Undergraduate Faculty Advisor. An award of $500 will be made to the winner. The department is not obligated to make an award should no outstanding candidates be received. Announcement of awards will be made in mid-April. Presentations of awards will take place at a luncheon on Tues., June 2, 2016.

Deadline: 5pm, Friday, April 1st, 2016
