HISTORY Bachelor of

DESIGN YOUR JOURNEY

A

					ר ר
	FIRST	SECOND	THIRD	FOURTH		WHAT CAN I DO
Discover	YEAR	YEAR	YEAR	YEAR		WITH MY MAJOR?
your mayor	Meet with your major advisor and chass advising to discuss your academic plans. Take Hist 001 and explore the major in a small setting. Enroll in history survey courses to meet the lower division requirements and college requirements .	Complete HIST 99W (with a grade of "C" or better), and strengthen your writing and research skills. Review major guidelines for study abroad and look into history-related programs . Join the History Club HEUCR	Review your degree progress with your major advisor. Join the History Club HEUCR Enroll in Upper-Division courses. Attend workshops at Center for Undergraduate Research and Engaged Learning.	Meet with your advisor to review your degree audit and ensure you are on track to graduate. Complete your major research seminar requirement (HISTORY 197). Complete any "bucket list" courses and remaining major, college requirements and campus requirements.		History alumni have gone on to a variety of successful careers in research, communications, education, law, libraries, media, business, policy, public service, tourism/events, nonprofits, government, and more. Jobs and Employers Homeless Services, City of Los Angeles Office Manager, Audible Administrative Assistant, Social Service Advocates – SSA Corp Liaison for the Veterans Paralegal, Legal Aid, Restorative Justice Project High School History Teacher, Moreno Valley, RUSD Teaching Assistant, Fulbright
Connect with your community	Get mentoring through Campus Collective Peer Mentoring or explore CHASS F1RST . Find study groups, tutoring, and academic support at the Academic Resource Center . Get to know professors, the history librarian, and graduate student instructors during their office hours. Join the History Club HEUCR	Join a History student organization or other student organizations . Consider embarking on a thesis "with distinction." Join the History Club HEUCR Start attending department events and the Sterling Stuckey Jectures as well as interdisciplinary conversations at the Center of Ideas and Society and CHASS events .	Attend the undergraduate research showcase and learn about the 197 and 195A/B research projects of fellow History majors. Check out the Library Guide for History and primary source guide.	Join a professional association such as the American Historical Association (AHA) . Present at the 197 Showcase and apply to present at another conference like the Pacific Coast Branch of the AHA . Connect with alumni groups and continue to build your network as you prepare to graduate.
Discover your passions	Discover new interests in lower-division course, or a student-run R'COURSE . Attend the Undergraduate Research Symposium and leam about research and award opportunities for History majors . Leam about research opportunities for History majors.	Meet with your Advisor, enroll in your first upper division major course, discuss options to explore declaring a secondary major or minor. Find research opportunities through the Undergraduate Research Portal and Opportunities . Enrich your studies with a certificate from UCR Extension or summer research program .	Planning a one-year research project, apply to the MINI GRANTS . Consider becoming a Chancellor's Research Fellows or apply for UCR's Prestigious Scholarships .	Teach your own R'COURSE . Submit your 197 to Cornerstone Journal to or the Undergraduate Research Journal . Keep pursuing your interests through a UCR EXCEL Program .
Engage locally and globally	Attend Highlander student activities and get involved with a student organization. Find service opportunities through the Community Engagement . Explore study, internship, and research abroad options with study abroad .	Work with a community organization or do an internship through The National Council for Preservation Education (NCPE) Explore FLEAP or UCEAP Programs . Brush up on your foreign language (ourses may be applied to B.A. breadth requirements and help with HIST 197 research.	Study and intern in Washington D.C. with UCDC or if you'd rather stay in California, look into UCCS (Sacramento) Look into a Undergraduate Summer Research Program MSRIP . Explore the Undergraduate Research Portal and Opportunities .	Hone your leadership skills with the XCEL+ Career Readiness plus Leadership program . Explore service opportunities after graduation, such as Peace Corps. Teach for America . AmeriCorps. U.S. Department of State , or search for History Jobs .		Graduate Programs (MA/PhD) Creative Writing Education History Historic Preservation Law Museum Studies Political Science
Reflect and plan your future	Visit UC Riverside Career Center . Sign up for Handshake . Develop a Plan for getting a career ready. Explore career fields and History Jobs .	Reflect on your education so far and skills and experience you still wish to build. Discuss career options and goals with a career peer advisor . staff members or department faculty . Think about doing an internship . Learn about graduate and professional school, see Step-by-Step for planning help.	Update your resume and LinkedIn profile. Discuss post-graduate options with advisors and professors. Attend career and graduate school fairs . Ask professors and graduate student instructors for recommendation letters.	Utilize iob board tools in your job search. Meet employers at Employer Info Sessions and Career Fairs . Apply to jobs, graduate school, and other opportunities.		Public Administration Public Administration Public Policy Library and Information Science Secondary Education Examples gathered from UCR Faculty and students